He married firstly in Smithfield, R.I., 28 Dec. 1748, Zerniah (Sophia) Herendeen (Arnold, V.R., op. cit., Smithfield, R.I.), probably died before the 1774 Census of the State of Rhode Island.

He married thirdly, 3 Nov. 1793 Catharine Hines (Hinds) of Buckland, Mass.(The Essex Institute, Salem, Mass., Vital Records of Buckland, 1934).

Through the courtesy of Mr. Thomas Davenport of Westboro, Mass., copy of his late father's notes were made available for use in this genealogy. It has been said that the father, Elmer F. Davenport would have been pleased to know that he contributed to a Shippee Genealogy because the early Davenports and Shippees of the Colrain, Mass. area had a reputation of despising each other. "He was that kind of man!"
Elmer F. Davenport's notes state that Peter (I) Shippee arrived at No-town Plantation which was located between Charlemont and Ashfield, Mass., in time that he and his son, Nathan, signed a petition for the incorporation of Buckland during December of 1778. Those notes state that Peter (I) purchased eighty-five (85) acres in the east part of Charlemont on 10 Jan. 1781, selling the west half of the land he lived on to his son Isreal on 13 Sept. 1784.
Davenport's notes indicate that Peter (I) Shippee was to have purchased a house, barn, and fifty (50) acres of land in Charlemont which is the present site of Indian Plaza during the month he married Catharine Hines and that he and wife Catharine sold that same property, which was described as on the bank of Deerfield River and on Hines Meadow, in 1803. The notes say that Peter (I) was to have purchased one hundred forty-five (145) acres of land on Catamount Hill which is in Colrain, Mass. on 11 July 1801 and that Peter (I), Catherine, and her mother, "Granny Hines," moved to Catamount Hill between 1801 and 1803, living in a cabin on his son Amasa's place.

Silas is said to have been a private in the Revolutionary War and was located in Clarksburg, Mass.(Berkshire County, Mass., his depositions of 7 May 1818 & 3 July 1820, op. cit.) as early as 1800 and as late as 1830 (his household in Clarksburg, Mass., Second and Fifth Census of the United States). His wife was of Adams, Mass. on 4 Sept. 1838 (Berkshire County, Mass., her deposition of 4 Sept. 1838, pension application, Fed. Arch.). She is believed to have been of Burton, Geauga County, Ohio in July of 1839 (her pension application record No. 1229, Fed. Arch.)

22. Nathan[4] Shippee (Peter (I)[3], Thomas[2], David[1]), born 1752-3 (Saratoga County, N.Y., deposition of his widow, 13 May 1841, pension application, Fed. Arch.), probably in Providence County, R.I. (St. Lawrence County, N.Y., deposition of brother Peter (II)[4] Shippee, 25 Jan. 1842, pension application, Fed. Arch.), died in Corinth, Saratoga County, N.Y., 18 Nov. 1819 (Saratoga County, N.Y., deposition of his widow, 26 Dec. 1838, pension application, Fed. Arch.).

He a resident of Glocester, R.I. married in May 1776, Mary Kimball also a resident of Glocester (St. Lawrence County, N.Y., deposition of brother Peter (II) Shippee, 25 Jan. 1842, and Saratoga County, N.Y., deposition of Nathan's widow, 26 Dec. 1838, pension application, Fed. Arch.), born 1756-7 (Saratoga County, N.Y., his widow's depositions of 26 Dec. 1838, 13 May 1841, and 10 Aug. 1841, pension application, Fed. Arch.), died 15 May 1853 (gravestone, Lynnwood Cemetery, Hadley, N.Y.).

Nathan, according to his brother's deposition, is to have taken over his father's farm when he married. His widow's deposition of 13 May 1841 states that her husband was a resident of Glocester, R.I. in 1776 during which he was absent from her 16 days in the service of the United States, and that he was absent from her 3 months similarly in 1777 going to Stillwater, R.I. Her deposition of 26 Dec. 1838 states that her husband enlisted and entered into service of the United States when he was a resident of Charlemont in Berkshire County, Mass. (later Franklin County). Nathan's own recollection was that he enlisted in 1778 for nine (9) months, and that in 1881, after serving the earlier term, he entered the service for three (3) years, serving about two (2) years until near the close of the war (Franklin County, Mass., his deposition of 2 July 1818, pension application, Fed. Arch.). He claimed to have served in the company of a Captain Hanley of a Colonel Michael Jackson's regiment, to have been confined by sickness to a hospital for a while, and to have received a regular discharge from service at West Point in the State of New York. His widow's deposition of 26 Dec. 1838 states that he served as a private and that he did get home occasionally by permission during his three (3) year enlistment.

He, as said earlier, is to have signed a petition in December of 1878 with his father for the incorporation of Buckland, Mass., which was incorporated as a town on 14 April 1779 from the plantation called No-town and part of Charlemont.

Nathan's household shows at Guilford, Windham County, Vermont in 1800 (Second Census of the United States). He was to have gone to Hadley in the Sacandaga Valley of Saratoga County, New York (Elmer F. Davenport, The Puzzle of Catamount Hill, 1969). He is shown as being of Hadley, N.Y. in July of 1812 (Franklin County, Mass. probates, Vol. 33, p. 136). His own deposition of 2 July 1818 shows his residence to be in Colrain, Franklin County, Mass. Mary, Nathan's widow, is believed to have lived in the household of her brother-in-law, Jesse Shippee, at Hadley in 1820 and 1830 (Fourth & Fifth Census of the United States). She is believed to have lived in her son Zaben's household in Hadley, N.Y. in 1840 and is named in his household of Day, N.Y. in 1850 (Sixth & Seventh Census of the United States).

Children, all named with birth dates on copy of the Nathan Shippee Family Bible Record (Saratoga County, N.Y., deposition of Silas Salsbury of Corinth, N.Y., 28 May 1841, pension application of Nathan Shippee's widow, Fed. Arch.).

23. Israel[4] Shippee (Peter (I)[3], Thomas[2], David[1]), born in R.I. (Vital Records of Mass., d. rec. of son Ira) 1754-5; died 19 April 1832 (gravestone, W. Branch Cem., Colrain, Mass.).
He married, 6 Oct. 1785, Rhoda Kass (Bass) (The Essex Institute, Salem, Mass., Vital Records of Charlemont, Mass., 1917), born in Deerfield, Mass. (Vital Records of Mass., d. rec. of son Ira), 1765-6, died 2 June 1828 (gravestone, W. Branch Cem., Colrain, Mass.), daughter of Abraham Bass & Rhoda Mitchel, who is said to have been a widow, Rhoda (Bass) Andrus, when she married the second son of Peter (I), Israel (E.F. Davenport, op. cit.).
Israel, as said earlier, was to have purchased the west half of his father's eighty-five (85) acres in the east part of Charlemont on 13 Sept. 1784. Davenport's notes state that he purchased seventy-five (75) acres on the west line of Reuben (his brother) in 1784, selling ten (10) acres off in 1787. His household shows in Charlemont in 1790 (First Census of the United States). Davenport's notes state that he purchased fifty (50) acres for £ 40 in 1788, and that he purchased still more property in 1791. He is said to have sold his large hillside acreage where he lived on the west Oxbow in East Charlemont in 1800 and to have migrated to Edinburg, Saratoga County, N.Y. that same year (E.F. Davenport, op. cit.). He is shown as being of Edinburg, N.Y. in July of 1812 (Franklin County, Mass. probates, Vol. 33, p. 136).

(his gravestone).

24. Reuben^4 Shippee (Peter (I)^3, Thomas^2, David^1), born the third son of Peter (I) Shippee (Elmer F. Davenport, The Puzzle of Catamount Hill, 1969) by 1758 (four (4) males aged 16 and up show in the Peter (I) Shippee household at Glocester, R.I., 1774 Census of the State of Rhode Island).

His wife is said to have been one Lois who provided the blue material used to make the first American flag thrown to the breeze above a school house, that event occuring in the spring of 1812 (Dr. A.F. Davenport and Miss Charlotte Augusta Dunton, Catamount Hill Association of Colrain, Mass., 1901).

Reuben shows as head of a household in Charlemont, Mass. with one female in 1791 (First Census of the United States). Analysis of the Peter (I)^{3} Shippee family households of 1800 in Charlemont, Mass.; Colrain, Mass.; Greenfield, N.Y.; and Guilford, Vt. leads one to suspect that Reuben and his wife were in his father's Charlemont household along with his step-mother that year. No children show in that household.

Reuben and his wife are said to have attended the above mentioned flag raising which occurred on Catamount Hill, a 3500 acre plateau in the southwest part of Colrain, Mass. They are said to have lived a way to the southwest of his brother Peter (II)'s home and to the west side of Houghton Brook on Catamount Hill (E.F. Davenport, op. cit.)

Reuben is said to have been drafted into service in August of 1814 at Catamount Hill with orders to be equipped and ready to start for Boston the very next morning (Dr. A.F. Davenport and Miss Charlotte Augusta Dunton, Catamount Hill Association of Colrain, Mass., 1901). He and his wife appear to have established a household in Hadley, N.Y. by 1820 which shows two (2) females born after 1803, one male born before 1805, and two (2) males born after 1809 (Fourth Census of the United States).

25. Jesse^{4} Shippee (Peter (I)^{3}, Thomas^{2}, David^{1}), born in Glocester, R.I., 16 Nov. 1764 (Saratoga County, N.Y., his deposition of 6 Sept. 1832, pension application, Fed. Arch.), died in Hadley, N.Y., 8 March 1833 (Franklin County, Mass., his widow's deposition of 30 Aug. 1853 (Catherine F.), pension application, Fed. Arch.).

He probably married firstly by 1790, that wife having been born after 1765 but before 1775, his household showing at Greenfield, N.Y. in 1800 and at Hadley, N.Y. in 1820 (Second and Fourth Census of the United States). Two (2) females and one (1) male show in his 1800 household, each being born during the period of 1790-1800. One of these children with spouse is believed to show in his 1820 household along with two (2) of their own children of age under 10.

Jesse married (probably secondly) 9 Nov. 1823 Catherine F. Wheller, born about 1786-7 (Franklin County, Mass., her deposition of 30 Aug. 1853, pension application, Fed. Arch.). His household shows in the town of Corinth, N.Y. in 1830 where his wife appears to have been born during the period 1780-90, where one female shows of age 5-10, where one male shows of age 5-10, and where one male shows under age 5 (Fifth Census of the United States).

His deposition of 6 Sept. 1832 indicates that he resided in Buckland, Mass. on 20 June 1778 when he entered a company commanded by one Captain Newton, as a volunteer private. That company is said to have marched to Springfield, Mass. upon receiving marching orders on 1 July 1778. Half of that company which included Jesse is said to have marched to Brookfield, Mass. about ten days later to guard a continental magazine where British prisoners were kept. He is said to have been dismissed on 1 Jan. 1779 when his enlistment was up.

Jesse's deposition states that he moved with his father from Buckland to Charlemont, Mass. in the spring of 1780 and that in August of the same year he volunteered to go to West Point for three (3) months. He is said to have been mustered-in at Colrain, Mass. and to have eventually joined a detachment of two-hundred (200) militia men to go twenty mile above Fishkill, N.Y. to chop wood which was to be rafted down to the Point. He is said to have chopped wood for about 3 weeks, sleeping on the ground in bush huts which caused him to take a violent cold and fever. He was carried back to West Point in a baggage wagon where he remained until his enlistment expired. His deposition states that he could march only 5 or 6 mile a day at that time and that it took two or three weeks for him to get home.

His deposition also states that he volunteered into Captain Oliver Chaddock's company and marched to Saratoga, N.Y. to oppose a reported invasion from Canada and served out his term there. Perhaps he became familiar with the Sacandaga Valley of New York at that time which prompted his eventual settlement there at Hadley. His deposition states that he resided in Charlemont, Mass. for about ten years after the war's end (about 1793) after which he moved to Hadley, N.Y.

Jesse was a resident of Hadley, N.Y. in July of 1812 (Franklin County, Mass. probates, Vol. 33, p. 136), and in 1832 when his application for pension was submitted.

Catherine F., widow of Jesse, was a resident of Conway, Mass. when her pension application depositions were submitted on 30 Aug. 1853. She was a resident of Shelburne, Mass. on 27 April 1855 when a declaration was issued to obtain bounty land to which she was entitled.

He married firstly, 5 Feb. 1793, Susana Tenny, both residents of Charlemont, Mass. (The Essex Institute, Salem, Mass., Vital Records of Ashfield, Mass., 1942).

Peter (II), then a resident of Colrain, Mass., married secondly, 20 Oct. 1817, Dorcas Pike (The Essex Institute, Salem, Mass., Vital Records of Charlemont, Mass., 1917), said born about 1793 and said to have died 29 Jan. 1842 in Elmer F. Davenport's notes.

Elmer F. Davenport's notes state that Peter (II) purchased about fifty (50) acres of land on 6 April 1793 which is said to have been recorded in 1800, Volume 14, p. 388. That lot is said to be north of the Benjamin Farley farm on Catamount Hill, Colrain, Mass. and is believed to have been Peter (II)'s homestead (Elmer F. Davenport, The Puzzle of Catamount Hill, 1969). Peter (II) is shown as being of Colrain, Mass. in July of 1812 (Franklin County, Mass. probates, Vol. 33, p. 136).

He and wife Dorcus are said to have migrated to Spraguesville, St. Lawrence County, N.Y. after 1835 with 4 to 6 of their own children, accompanied by his son (her step-son), Peter (III) Shippee, and his family (E.F. Davenport, op. cit.). Peter (II) shows of age 84 in the household of his son Paul D. in Fowler, St. Lawrence County, N.Y. in 1850 (Seventh Census of the United States). Davenport's notes state that Peter (II) and wife Dorcus were buried in the cemetery at Spraguesville, N.Y.

Foot Note: Peter (I)^{3} Shippee's son Peter^{4} Jr. whose wife is said to be Susanna and their son said to be Peter^{5} in New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 96 (1942), pp. 64 through 67, were one and the same person, Peter (II)^{4}, the said Peter Shippee^{6} being Peter (III)^{5} grandson of the pioneer Peter (I)^{3} Shippee. Amasa and Israel were brothers not sons of Peter (II)^{4} as is indicated there-in.

Peter (II)^{4} Shippee's son Peter (III)^{5}, born in Massachusetts and the son's wife Mary (Polly) show in the son's household in Fowler, St. Lawrence County, N.Y. in 1860, he showing to have been born 1804-5 (Eighth Census of the United States). Peter (III)^{5} is said to have been a resident of Cold Rain (Colrain, Mass.) when he married Polly Dunton in Pownal, Vt., 22 Feb. 1827 (Vital Records of Vt., Montpelier). Peter (II)^{4}'s marriage to Dorcus Pike, 20 Oct. 1817, was after the birth of Peter (III)^{5} and the earlier children by his first wife Susana Tenny. Peter (II)^{4} shows aged 84 years in the household of his son, Paul D. Shippee in Fowler, St. Lawrence County, N.Y. in 1850 (Seventh Census of the United States).

Peter (III)'s 1860 household reveals that his son Peter (Jesse Dunton)^{6} aged 21 years had been born in New York (Eighth Census of the United States).

Reuben whose wife was Lois, was a son of Peter (I)^{3} Shippee and not that of Peter (II)^{4} and second wife Dorcus or a Peter^{5} and a wife Dorcus as shown on p. 67 of the Register. Reuben and his wife were of his own household long before Peter (II)^{4} married one Dorcus.

Davenport, The Puzzle of Catamount Hill, 1969), born 9 June 1784 (The Essex Institute, Salem, Mass., Vital Records of Charlemont, 1917), died 17 Apr. 1866 (gravestone, W. Branch Cem., Colrain, Mass.).

Amasa is said to have purchased one hundred (100) acres of land which included the northern 2/3ds of Beaver Meadows Pond on Catamount Hill, Colrain, Mass. This purchase is said to have been made or registered on 19 March 1800 (E.F. Davenport's notes).

He is said to have been a member of the West Colrain Militia in 1812.

Amasa and his wife are said to have been instrumental in raising the first American flag above a school house. His wife, Rhoda, is said to have given the white material for that flag which is said to have been made in her home, the flag raising occurring in the spring of 1812 (Dr. A.F. Davenport and Miss Charlotte Augusta Dunton, Catamount Hill Association of Colrain, Mass., 1901), month of May (Elmer F. Davenport, The Puzzle of Catamount Hill, 1969). A large boulder monument is located at that old school location on Catamount Hill which was dedicated in 1903 to commemorate that historic event. Another boulder monument is located near the Shippee graves in W. Branch Cemetery, Colrain, Mass., which was dedicated to the memory of Amasa and Rhoda Shippee in 1912 for their part in the flag raising.

Amasa is shown to have been a resident of Colrain, Mass. on the deed recorded on 31 Aug. 1814 that conveyed to himself rights of his brothers and sister to property, both real and personal, which their late father had possessed (Franklin County, Mass. probates, Vol. 33, p. 136). He is said to have been a man of great stature and is said to have volunteered into active service of the United States in August 1814 at Catamount Hill, receiving orders to be equipped and ready to start for Boston the next morning. He is said to have received an honorable discharge after a few weeks when the war had ended, and to have lived out his life on Catamount Hill (Dr. A.F. Davenport and Miss Charlotte Augusta Dunton, op. cit.). Amasa is said to have served at Commercial Pt., Dorchester, Mass. (E.F. Davenport's notes).

Rhoda, wife of Amasa, relinquished her right of dower in the Pine Swamp Lot on Catamount Hill, 11 March 1851 (Franklin County, Mass. probates, Vol. 168, pp. 19-20).

38. Othniel[5] Shippee (Nathan[4], Peter (I)[3], Thomas[2], David[1]), born (probably in Glocester, R.I.) on 30 June 1777 (St. Lawrence County, N.Y., deposition of his uncle, Peter (II)[4] Shippee, 25 Jan. 1842, his mother's pension application, Fed. Arch.; Saratoga County, N.Y., his mother's deposition of 13 May 1841 and one Silas Salsbury's deposition of 28 May 1841, her pension application, Fed. Arch.).
He is believed to have married one Linda (d. rec. of son, Nathan).

Child.

64. i. Nathan[6], b. 1812-13.

39. Zaben (I)[5] Shippee (Nathan[4], Peter (I)[3], Thomas[2], David[1]), born in Massachusetts (his household in Hadley, N.Y. of 1850; Seventh Census of the United States) 16 Sept. 1787 (Saratoga County, N.Y., his mother's deposition of 13 May 1841 and one Silas Salsbury's deposition of 28 May 1841, her pension application, Fed. Arch.), died at Hadley, N.Y., 23 March 1859 (widow's pension record, War of 1812, dated 19 May, 1871, Fed. Arch.) buried in Lynnwood Cemetery, Hadley, N.Y. (Zabin Shippy/Shippee gravestone and monument, Lynnwood Cem., Hadley, N.Y.). Zaben served in the 59th Regement of the New York Militia in the War of 1812 from 12 Sept. 1814 to 12 Dec. 1814.

He married in Hadley, N.Y., 24 Nov. 1811, Harriet Shippee (widow's pension declaration, War of 1812, dated 15 May 1871, Fed. Arch.), born probably in Rhode Island about 1793 (his household in Hadley, N.Y. of 1850, Seventh Census of the United States), died after 15 May 1880 when she is said to have resided in Day, N.Y. (widow's pension records, War of 1812, Fed. Arch.) believed daughter of one James S. (I) Shippee.

James S. (I) Shippee is identified by the Franklin County Massachusetts Biographical Review, 1895 as having been a revolutionary soldier and a successful Saratoga County, N.Y. farmer whose children are said to be Samuel S., Polly, Harriet, "Lydia", and James S. (II). James S. (II) Shippee is said to have had sons James H. and "Alford W.", among others. The wife of James H. Shippee who is said to have been Evelyn Bose was probably one Emeline Vose (Vital Records of Vt., Readsboro m. rec., Montpelier) and the son "Alford W." whose wife is said to have been one Eliza Mills was in fact Albert W. Shippee (his household in Day, N.Y. of 1875, New York State Census; his monument, Lynnwood Cem., Hadley, N.Y.). Thus, error is both suspected and known to exist in that description of this family line!

Only one "Lydia" Shippee has been found of likely age to that of the James S. (I)^5 Shippee children. She, one Lydia Shippey of Clarksburg, Massachusetts married in Stamford, Vt., 3 July 1825, Angus W. Noble of Adams, Mass. (Vital Records of Vt., m. rec., Stamford, Vt., Montpelier). One Silas Shippey/Shippy (Shippee) household in Clarksburg, Massachusetts was probably that of her father, he then being Silas^4 Shippee son of Henry^3 Shippee (Thomas^2, David^1) whose son Ross appears as head of the only other Shippee household in Clarksburg, Mass (of 1810 only) (Second through Fifth Census of the United States). The Silas Shippee household information is such that egress of a female of marriageable age is probable during the period of 1820 through 1830. The Daniel Noble household in Adams, Mass. of 1810 is probably that of Angus W. Noble's father, Angus, then having been born about 1784-1794 (Daniel Noble household in Adams, Mass., Third Census of the United States).

No "Lydia" Shippee, daughter of James S. (I)^5 Shippee has been identified during careful search throughout Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Vermont, and the Sacandaga Valley of New York State.

James S. (I)^5 Shippee's wife was probably an older sister or an aunt of one Elijah Ellis whom is said to have been one of the earliest settlers of Hadley, N.Y. A genealogical description of the Elijah Ellis family is presented below because such knowledge is essential to establish relationships of pertinent families of the Sacandaga Valley of New York State.

Elijah Ellis, Rev. (gravestone), born probably in Massachusetts (household information of his son-in-law, David Hyde of Hadley, N.Y. in 1880, Tenth Census of the United States) although he is said to have been born in Vermont in his household at Corinth, N.Y. in 1855 (New York State Census), born on 11 May 1775, died 21 April 1856 (gravestone, Ellis Yard, Hadley, N.Y., C.E. Durkee, The Last of Ye Epitaphs in Saratoga County, N.Y., 1881, original copy taken 25 Oct. 1878 by J.C. Morris).

He married one Anna Pills (Pitts) (d. rec. of daughter, Sarah Ella (Ellis)(Sutliff) Flansburg), born in Columbia County, N.Y. (his household in Corinth, N.Y. of 1855, New York State Census; One Amassa Pitts household and one Joseph Pitts household of Caanan, Columbia County, N.Y. show in 1791 with several females in each case, First Census of the United States) born 17 July 1779, died 13 Aug. 1874 (gravestone, Ellis Yard, Hadley, N.Y., C.E. Durkee, The Last of Ye Epitaphs in Saratoga County, N.Y., 1881, original copy taken 25 Oct. 1878 by J.C. Morris).

Elijah Ellis is said to have come from Shaftsbury, Vermont via. Warren County, N.Y. in 1800 and is said to have had eleven (11) children (Nathaniel Bartlett Sylvester, History of Saratoga County, New York, 1878). He is said to have settled on the southern side of the Glen Patent near the western foot of Mount Anthony. The Ellis Yard (Cem.), once cleared and kept stands today in second growth on the south bank above the Sacandaga River about eighty rods to the west of where the original Ellis house had stood.

Children of Elijah Ellis and Anna Pitts: 1. Andrew (Mary Lola "Mate" (Shippee) Weiss, daughter of Zaben (II)^{6} Shippee (Zaben (I)^{5}, Nathan^{4}, Peter (I)^{3}, Thomas^{2}, David^{1}), resident of Hadley, N.Y. said that her parents often spoke of Aunt Sybel and Uncle David Hyde, 17 Nov. 1968; Day, N.Y. d. rec. of daughter, Mary Ann (Ellis)(Buck) Shippee who was 2d wife of Ziba Jessie^{6} Shippee (Zaben (I)^{5}, Nathan^{4}, Peter (I)^{3}, Thomas^{2}, David^{1}) maternal grandmother of Mary Lola "Mate" (Shippee) Weiss), believed b. 1793-1800 (father's household in Hadley, N.Y. of 1810, Third Census of the United States), probably d. before 25 Aug. 1856 (not named in Saratoga County petition for administration of father's estate, filed 26 Nov. 1856), m. one Charity Walker (Day, N.Y. d. rec. of daughter, Mary Ann (Ellis)(Buck) Shippee). 2. Burbank (d. rec. of son David, Corinth, N.Y., 22 May 1910), believed m. secondly one Betsey, b. 1813-14 (his household in Corinth, N.Y. of 1875, New York State Census; her gravestone, Corinth Rural Cem., Corinth, N.Y.), d. 22 Jan. 1890 (gravestone, Corinth Rural Cem., Corinth, N.Y.). 9. Lefa (Mrs. Daisy (Ellis) Sanders of Hadley, N.Y., family records, written dictation taken about 1932-3 of her grandfather, Jason Ellis, son of Elijah E. Flansburg (Mrs. Daisy (Ellis) Sanders, family record, op. cit., copied by author, 18 Nov. 1910) b. 1808-9 (his household in Hadley, N.Y. of 1850, Seventh Census of the United States). 11. Zina (Mrs. Daisy (Ellis) Sanders, family record, op. cit., copied by author, 18 Nov. 1910), b. 1821-2, d. 24 June 1850 (gravestone, Ellis Yard, Hadley, N.Y.), believed unmarried and drown in the Sacandaga River.

Anna Ellis's household in Corinth, N.Y. of 1865 (New York State Census) indicates that she had fifteen (15) children which may have been the case. Study of the Elijah Ellis family households throughout the various census records gives evidence only of the above mentioned eleven (11) children. The other four (4) children must have died young. Careful search of the Sacandaga Valley records has not revealed evidence of Ellis families other than those mentioned above or the descendants there-of.

John Graves Deming married thirdly one Mary Ann Hendrick, daughter of Lillian Shippey Hendricks (Lillia (Shippee) Hendrick), born 14 Dec. 1838 (Judson Keith Deming, Genealogy of the Descendants of John Deming, 1904), died in Maple Park, Illinois, 28 Aug. 1912 (petition for probate submitted 23 Sept. 1912, DeKalb County Court House, Sycamore, Illinois), believed buried in Johnson Grove Cemetery, Clinton Township, DeKalb County, Illinois (monument). She married secondly in Shabbona, Illinois, 20 May 1894, John Palm. Her second marriage record identifies her parents as Lillie Shippey (Lillia Shippee) and Joseph Hendrick (DeKalb County, Illinois, V.R.). A gravestone inscribed "Lillia wife of Joseph Hendrick" is located in the Lynnwood Cemetery, Hadley, N.Y.

Mary Ann (Hendrick)(Deming) Palm was bed-ridden with a broken hip during her later years and lived for a while in the home of her daughter, Ida Almina (Deming) Hallaron whom was the author's maternal grandmother. She was known affectionately by her grandchildren as Grandmother Palm and has been said to have been a very "sweet" person who often told stories to her grandchildren. The author's mother, Ruth Ellen (Hallaron) Bergsten, has said on several occasions during the author's youth that there had been Ellis back in her mother's ancestry. Knowledge of that became significant upon finding that a first cousin of the author's mother had been named John "Ellis" Deming and that the name of the Reverend David Hyde's wife shows as Sybel "Ellis" on his monument in Lynnwood Cemetery, Hadley, N.Y.

Lillia (Shippee) Hendrick is said to have gone to live in the home of Reverend David Hyde and his wife Sybel Ellis after her own husband had died, receiving the care and concern of that family (Mary Lola "Mate" (Shippee) Weiss of Hadley, N.Y., 17 Nov. 1968).

Five (5) lines of Shippee family are known to have settled in the Sacandaga Valley of New York State before the 1830s. They were as follows: 1. Nathan[4] Shippee (Peter (I)[3], Thomas[2], David[1]). 2. Israel[4] Shippee (Peter (I)[3], Thomas[2], David[1]). 3. Reuben[4] Shippee (Peter (I)[3], Thomas[2], David[1]). 4. Jesse[4] Shippee (Peter (I)[3], Thomas[2], David[1]). 5. James S. (I) Shippee, believed father of Harriet who married Zaben (I)[5] Shippee (Nathan[4], Peter (I)[3], Thomas[2], David[1]) and whose wife was probably a sister or aunt to Elijah Ellis, patriarch of the Sacandaga Valley Ellis families.

Lillia (Shippee) Hendrick is not found to be identified in the rather extensive records available on the above listed family lines 1. through 3., nor does a female of her age range show in the appropriate households of those family lines. She is not found to be named a daughter of the above listed family line 4., although she could have been one of the two (2) females listed of ages ranging under 10 years in Jesse[4] Shippee's household in Greenfield, N.Y. of 1800 (Second Census of the United States.) However, analysis of the above listed family line 5 supports belief that Lillia (Shippee) Hendrick was a daughter of James S. (I) Shippee.

The following genealogical description of the James S. (I) Shippee family is presented below to clarify what is known and also what is suspected relative to the identity of his wife and children:

James S. (I) Shippee, born probably in Rhode Island (his daughter, Harriet's entry in her son-in-law, William Blower's household in Hadley, N.Y. of 1880, Tenth Census of the United States), believed born before 1766 (he and his family, with the exception of son, James S. (II) who was probably away serving an apprenticeship, appear to have been the Hadley, N.Y. household of one John Shippy (Shippee) of 1810, Third Census of the United States) said to have died aged 80 years (Franklin County Massachusetts Biographical Review, 1895).

He probably married an older sister or an aunt of Elijah Ellis (Rev.) of Hadley, N.Y. as said earlier, born in Massachusetts (her presumed daughter daughter, Harriet's entry in the son-in-law, William Blower's household in Hadley, N.Y. of 1880, Tenth Census of the United States) probably 1751-66 (her age at death as said and birth year of her youngest daughter, Polly; their family, with the exception of son, James S. (II) who was probably away serving an apprenticeship, appear to have been the Hadley, N.Y. household of one John Shippy (Shippee) of 1810, Third Census of the United States), said to have died aged 50 years (Franklin County Massachusetts Biographical Review, 1895).

The John Shippy (Shippee) household of Hadley, N.Y. entry of 1810 appears next to the Elijah Ellis household entry (Third Census of the United States) which suggests that these were neighboring households and which lends incidental credibility to speculation that James S. (I)'s wife may have been an Ellis and perhaps an older sister or an aunt to Elijah Ellis (Rev.), their children then being cousins to Elijah's children which includes Sybel (Ellis) Hyde. (See statement of Mary Lola "Mate" (Shippee) Weiss on prior page.)

Children of James S. (I) Shippee, all named (one believed erroneously) in the Franklin County Massachusetts Biographical Review, 1895: 1. Harriet, b. probably in R.I. about 1793, d. after 1880, m. Zaben (I)[5] Shippee (Nathan[4], Peter (I)[3], Thomas[2], David[1]), both probably buried in Lynnwood Cemetery, Hadley, N.Y. (his gravestone and monument). 2. Lillia, believed printed as "Lydia" in the above Review. (Hesitation between "l"s, while pondering the number of "l"s to be used, during handwriting of the uncommon name "Lillia", could result in the 2d "l" taking on appearance of a "d" and in an indistince or omitted dot of the "i", resulting in a semblance of the very common name "Lydia", even though the penman then would have seemingly omitted the "y"'s loop; her age is consistant with that of the four (4) females of the James S. (I) Shippee family who appear to have been in the Hadley, N.Y. household of one John Shippy (Shippee) in 1810, Third Census of the United States), b. 1795-6, d. 13 Feb. 1848, m. one Joseph Hendrick (her gravestone, Lynnwood Cem., Hadley, N.Y.), b. 1770-5 (his household in Greenfield, N.Y. of 1800 and his household in Day, N.Y. of 1840, Second and Sixth Census of the United States), d. before wife, Lillia (Mrs. Mary Lola "Mate" (Shippee) Weiss of Hadley, N.Y., 17 Nov. 1968). Joseph Hendrick had probably been married earlier to a woman b. 1774-80, by whom he probably had many children (his household in Greenfield, N.Y. of 1800 and 1830, Second and Fifth Census of the United States). It is not surprising that Lillia went to live in the household of Sybel (Ellis) Hyde's husband, Sybel being her cousin if Lillia's mother was, as suspected, a sister or an aunt of Elijah Ellis (Rev.) of Hadley, N.Y. 3. James S. (II), said b. in Haddam (Hadley), N.Y., 1796 (Franklin County Massachusetts Biographical Review, 1895), d. 6 Nov. 1879 (monument in Lynnwood Cem., Hadley, N.Y.), m. said in June of 1821, Mary Clara Roberts (his household in Readsboro, Vt. of 1870, Ninth Census of the United States; Franklin County Massachusetts Biographical Review, 1895), b. in Whitingham, Vt., 10 Nov. 1801, d. in Rowe, Mass., 15 June 1907, buried in Hadley, N.Y. (Vital Records of Mass., d. rec., Rowe, Mass., Boston), said daughter of Horace and Martha (Bullock) Roberts (Franklin County Massachusetts Biographical Review, 1895). James S. (II) Shippee is said to have learned the trade of a shoemaker and to have settled in Whitingham, Vt. (Franklin County Massachusetts Biographical Review, 1895). 4. Samuel S., believed b. 1800-10 (Hadley, N.Y. household of one John Shippy (Shippee) in 1810, Third Census of the United States). 5. Polly, b. 1802, d. 1887 (Houghton monument, Lynnwood Cem., Hadley, N.Y.), m. one Aaron Houghton (Houghton monument, op. cit.; d. rec. of son, Squire Houghton, Day, N.Y., 23 Dec. 1906), b. 1803, d. 1888 (Houghton monument, op. cit.).

ADDENDUM TO THE BERGSTEN GENEALOGY - 1975 AND THE DAVID SHIPPEE FAMILY GENEALOGY - 1972/74

(See pp. F2, F2a & F2b of Vol. 1; pp. D41 & D42 of Vol. 2; pp. J24, J28 & J29 of Vol. 3 / See pp. 8, 20 & 24 thru 29.)

The identity of James S. (I) Shippee, said to have been a successful Saratoga County, N.Y. farmer, b. probably in Rhode Island before 1766, is not established. However, the author has a strong belief that he may have been a brother of John^{4} Shippee (Samuel^{3}, Solomon (I)^{2}, David^{1},) b. before 1756 (1747/8) who married one Meriba Herendeen at Smithfield, R.I. A statement of this hypothesis seems prudent at this time.

James S. (I) Shippee was the father of one Mrs. Mary Lola "Mate" Shippee Weiss's paternal grandmother, Harriet Shippee who married one Zabin Shippee. Harriet was born in Rhode Island according to the 1850 U.S. Census of Hadley, N.Y. Analysis of the John Shippee household of Hadley, N.Y. in the 1810 U.S. Census reveals what is believed to be the presence of the whole James S. (I) Shippee family with the exception of one son, James S. (II) Shippee who would have been living away from his family then as an apprentice shoemaker (James Shiner Shippee.) No other evidence of this John Shippee is found at Hadley.

Analysis of the John Shippee household in Shrewsbury, Rutland County, Vermont in the 1800 and 1810 U.S. Censuses reveals the whole family of John^{4} Shippee (Samuel^{3}, Solomon (I)^{2}, David^{1},) with one discrepancy that John himself is not accounted for in the 1810 record. The 1820 U.S. Census of Shrewsbury shows John's wife "Maryby," as head of the household. John died in Shrewsbury on 17 March 1813 aged about 65 years, according to the Rutland Herald of 31 March that year.

Mrs. Mary Weiss told me on October 19, 1968 and again on November 22, 1973 that her father's grandparents had come to Hadley and went back to Canada, leaving two sons and saying that they could not see why anyone would choose to live in the Hadley area. Those grandparents must have been of Harriet's side of the ancestry because because the ancestry of Zaben is accounted for all the way back to Rhode Island. John and James S. (I) Shippee were, no doubt, the two brothers who remained in the Hadley area.

The possibility exists that John Shippee of Hadley in 1810 is the John^{4} Shippee of Shrewsbury, Vermont of 1790 and 1800 who was missing in his own household of Shrewsbury in 1810. Why he would have a household at Hadley in 1810, some 70 mile from his wife and children during the instant the 1810 Census was taken is unknown. Domestic difficulties or acquisition of new lands could be part of such cause. If this hypothesis is correct, James S. (I) Shippee's parents would be Samuel^{3} and Sarah (MOwry) Shippee who may indeed have been of parts removed such as Canada after their marriage at Smithfield, Rhode Island in 1746-7.
